1. Website Visitors

Like most website operators, Hillandale Farms collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. Hillandale Farms's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how Hillandale Farms's visitors use its website. From time to time, Hillandale Farms may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website.

Hillandale Farms also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged in users and for users leaving comments on <http://www.hillandalefarms.com/> blog posts. Hillandale Farms only discloses logged in user and commenter IP addresses under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below.

3. Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying Information

Hillandale Farms discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only to those of its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on Hillandale Farms's behalf or to provide services available at Hillandale Farms's website, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others. Some of those employees, contractors and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your home country; by using Hillandale Farms's website, you consent to the transfer of such information to them. Hillandale Farms will not rent or sell potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information to anyone. Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations, as described above, Hillandale Farms discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only in response to a subpoena, court order or other governmental request, or when Hillandale Farms believes in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the property or rights of Hillandale Farms, third parties or the public at large.

If you are a registered user of <http://www.hillandalefarms.com/> and have supplied your email address, Hillandale Farms may occasionally send you an email to tell you about new features, solicit your feedback, or just keep you up to date with what's going on with Hillandale Farms and our products. We primarily use our blog to communicate this type of information, so we expect to keep this type of email to a minimum. If you send us a request (for example via a support email or via one of our feedback mechanisms), we reserve the right to publish it in order to help us clarify or respond to your request or to help us support other users. Hillandale Farms takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information.
